Profile

Richard joined Stiles Harold Williams September 1995 as a Surveyor within the Development Consultancy Department, became a Director in April 1999, then Head of Development Consultancy in 1999, and the Head of the Kent, Surrey and South London Region in 2004. Since joining Stiles Harold Williams he has been involved in agency and valuation of commercial and residential property and development sites.

After a short time he specialised in the appraisal, sale and acquisition of development opportunities, across the South East on behalf of a wide range of Public Body, Institutional and private clients. In particular he has provided strategic property advice and disposal strategies for the NHS to NHS Estates, Inventures, Health Authorities and numerous Trusts.

He also deals with compulsory purchase and compensation claims both on behalf of the Acquiring Authority and clients with lands to be acquired.

Before joining Stiles Harold Williams, Richard spent his first two years within the profession at the Reigate Valuation Office dealing with a wide range of statutory valuation issues on a variety of commercial and residential properties within Surrey.

Project Experience

Over the last 10 years as head of the Development Consultancy Division Richard has advised on a wide range of projects from Margate and Dover on the East to Bristol in the West. This has included planning matters, viability, agency and disposal.

Additional Information

Richard Plant was Vice Chairman and YVA representative for the Surrey Branch of the Incorporated Society of Valuers and Auctioneers, and a Committee Member of the Surrey Branch (Local Association) of the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors where he also served on the National Valuation Panel. He was on the Board of Governors of Croham Hurst School until its merger with Old Palace School had concluded. He is now on the Board of trustees of Fairfield Halls and Croydon Business Ventures, both of which are charities, and a Governor of St Peters School South Croydon.
